Guidelines

Prospective authors are requested to send abstracts or papers to Scientific Committee by 30th of July 2008. Authors should include all the details about surname, first name, affiliation, mailing address, country, and e-mail . A brief bio data with photograph also required. Each contribution will be reviewed by the program committee, according to a blind reviewing process (sample abstract available at www.homoeotimes.com)

The scientific committee will review the abstracts submitted and the selection criteria include accuracy and originality of ideas, clarity and significance of results and quality of the presentation with evidence based documents. Papers selected will be scheduled for presentation and "Notification of Acceptance" will be published in Homoeo Times Journal. The camera ready papers in Power Point presentation should be submitted for final review.

Fertility 2009 will not accept any paper which, at the time of submission, is under review or has already been published or accepted for publication in a journal or another conference.
